A Crazy Law Student

He Cuts Some Fantastic Capers at Poughkeepsie.

BUT AMBITION O'ERLEAPED ITSELF.

And His Program was Cut Somewhat by Lack of the Wholesome and Enjoyable at Passing His Examination. He Hires a Band, Orders a Banquet, Makes a Speech, and Generally Celebrates—A Curious Proceeding.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., May 18.—Herbert Winthrop Peck, of Plainfield, N. J., passed a creditable examination Thursday, and was admitted to practice at the bar of the state of New York. He immediately rushed into the street, and throwing his hat in the air, shouted: "I am an attorney and a counselor at law. Where can I get a band?" He found one of nineteen pieces, and hired it for the day and paraded the streets at the head of it, carrying a broom.

Hitches in the Program.—He announced that he had hired three open barouches, and was going to take Justices Boreas, Dykman and Pratt to Vassar college, and also all the Columbia college graduates, of whom he is one. He communicated with the college authorities, but they refused him admission to the grounds. He sent the band to Bishop's military academy with instructions to bring the corps of cadets up town, but Mr. Bishop would not let them go.

A Hollow Mockery as to Cash.—Peck then sent the band to the Nelson house to give an open-air concert, and went himself to a store on Market street and ordered $200 worth of fireworks, which were not sent to him, as he had not paid for them. Next he made a speech in front of the Nelson house, saying that he was "broken," but had a $200 check in his pocket that he could not cash, and yet had the band to pay for. He addressed a big crowd of people, among whom were several Columbia college graduates, and was soon turned away.

Too Much Hard Study.—At last accounts the band had not been paid for, nor the fireworks, and Mr. Peck had engaged a collection for all his fellow-students who had remained. It is the belief of those who know him that hard study has disordered his mind, and his success in passing and being admitted has crazed him for the time. Much sympathy has been expressed for him by those who know him best. Peck, accompanied by two of his comrades, left last night for New York.

THE WORK OF A DASTARD.

A Worthless Vagabond Harbors His Wife in a Washington City School Room.
 WASHINGTON CITY, May 18.—Mrs. Sarah E. Allen, a school teacher in the Jefferson school building in south Washington, was shot and killed by her husband, Oswald C. Allen, about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Allen then turned his pistol and killed himself. There had been some difficulty between the pair, and they have not lived together for some time. The tragedy occurred in the school building. Allen hired a cab on Pennsylvania avenue and told the driver to take him to the Jefferson building. Upon arriving there he alighted and told the driver to wait until he wanted him.

Shot in the Presence of Her Pupils.—Then he walked up the stone steps and passed through the hall into the cloak-room adjoining the room where his wife was engaged as a teacher. He showed himself to her and beckoned her to the door. She came toward him. As she reached the threshold of the cloak-room he drew a pistol and shot her in the temple. Turning the pistol then upon himself, he shot himself through the right temple. Both fell to the floor in the cloak-room. The children in the school room who had witnessed the frightful scene rushed from the room in a panic and spread the alarm.

Died in the School Room.—The woman was found to be still alive. She was removed to the school room and Mrs. Bowman, Cook, Thompson and Leach called, made an examination and pronounced the wound, however, was pronounced fatal. The remains of Allen were taken away to the morgue, but Mrs. Allen was left in the school room, in which a short time before she had been cheerfully talking to the pupils. She died at 6:30.

A Worthless Hound.—Mrs. Allen was about 42 years old, and had been a teacher for many years. She was in charge of a third-grade class, composed of little girls. She was the daughter of Mr. W. Johnson, an old and well-known citizen of Washington City. Her parents reside in this city. Allen never had a trade, but his father, Oswald C. Allen, Jr., was a well-known printer in this city. His family came from Charlottesville, Va., about fourteen years ago. Miss Johnson was warned against Allen before she married him thirteen years ago. He ill-treated her during their early married life, and she was obliged to leave him. For some time she has been living with her parents. Allen has figured in the police courts a great deal of late. He was a worthless vagabond.

Railway Warehouse Destroyed.—NORFOLK, Va., May 18.—The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway company's warehouse was burned here last night and entirely destroyed. The loss on the building and freight is estimated at $100,000. The building, a wooden structure, was 300 feet long.

Death of a Maine Hermit.—SACO, Me., May 18.—Joshua Clark, aged 82, an eccentric character, who has lived as a hermit in a miserable hut in the town of Dayton for twenty-five years, was found dead on Wednesday in his shanty, which he occupied in common with a flock of sheep. The body of a dead lamb served as a pillow for his corpse. Under his bed were the carcasses of two sheep. Upon a dish was some raw salt pork, which is supposed to have constituted his last meal. Clark was an educated man, and was formerly a schoolmaster and worth some property.

The Workers Get an Increase.—PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 18.—The National Tube works at McKeesport have granted the demand for a restoration of last year's wages, and the 2,000 men in all departments resumed work to-day. The concession means an advance of 10 to 15 per cent. in the wages of skilled men and 5 per cent. in those of laborers.

Stabbed Another Man.—HENRY HECKEL, N. J., May 18.—Henry Heckel, 32, an eccentric character, who has lived as a hermit in a miserable hut in the town of Dayton for twenty-five years, was found dead on Wednesday in his shanty, which he occupied in common with a flock of sheep. The body of a dead lamb served as a pillow for his corpse. Under his bed were the carcasses of two sheep. Upon a dish was some raw salt pork, which is supposed to have constituted his last meal. Clark was an educated man, and was formerly a schoolmaster and worth some property.

Turks Massacring Christians.—VIENNA, May 18.—It is stated at Cattings that the Turks are massacring Christians on the frontier of Montenegro.

In the Spring

Almost everybody wants a "spring tonic." Here is a simple testimonial, which shows how B. B. B. is regarded. It will knock your malaria out and restore your appetite:

SPLENDID FOR A SPRING TONIC.
 -ARLINGTON, Ga., June 30, 1887.
 I suffered with malarial blood poison more or less all the time, and the only thing that did me any good is B. B. B. It is undoubtedly the best blood medicine made, and for this malarial country should be used by every one in the spring of the year, and as good in summer, fall and winter as a tonic and blood purifier.

CADIZ, Ky., July 6, 1887.
 Please send me one box Hood's Balm Catarrh Snuff by return mail, as one of my customers is taking B. B. B. for catarrh, and wants a box of snuff. B. B. B. gives better satisfaction than any medicine I ever sold. I have sold ten dozen in the past few weeks, and it gives good satisfaction. If I don't remit all right for snuff write me. Yours,

IT REMOVED THE PIMPLES.

ROUND MOUNTAIN, Tex., March 29, '87.
 A lady friend of mine has for several years been troubled with bumps and pimples on her face and neck, for which she used various cosmetics in order to remove them and beautify and improve her complexion, but these local applications were only temporary and left her skin in a worse condition. I recommended an internal preparation—known as Botanic Balm—which I have been using and selling about two years; she used three bottles and nearly all pimples have disappeared, her skin is soft and smooth and her general health much improved. She expresses herself much gratified, and can recommend it to all who are thus affected.

It is used in the household of the President as well as that of the humblest citizen; by members of the army and the navy; the bar and the bench; the pulpit and the press; all ranks and classes of people. To further illustrate this fact we append a few of the more recent letters from Governors of different States.
